Ohio law provides that public records, except certain statutory exceptions, must be available at reasonable times during regular hours. Upon request, the Auditor's Office is afforded a reasonable period of time to assemble and organize these records, and have an attorney review and authorize each request before it is released. If any requested records are exempt from disclosure, the records or parts thereof, will be withheld or redacted, and you will be provided with a statement of the legal basis for such action. In-office inspection and emailed copies are free of charge. Copies are $.10 per page + postage if mailed or shipped.
